

“Divine Intervention”

Prophetic Word for 2013 - Pastor Dawn Rene' McCann

December 31, 2012

This is a year of divine intervention—a time where I will intervene on your behalf, a time when you are actually stepping out of wherever you have been, and whatever the enemy thought he had slain you with, and whatever he thought he had been able to take away from you. I am intervening on your behalf. I am re-identifying you with the greatness that I have already placed on the inside of you. You will begin to live as though you are with the King. For the knowledge of who I am will go with you and I will walk with you through the desert places and I will find them with you. And we will, WE will, WE WILL have a divine intervention as you begin to understand what I have placed on the inside of you.

For in this time and in this season, there is something new that is occurring inside of you. There is something that you are grabbing hold of and understanding. You are no longer going to rely on that which you have relied on in the past. For My glory is going to increase, and My power is going to increase, as you spend time understanding this. And as you spend time saturating yourself in the truth of who you have really been made to be, you will understand that you have already been created in the image of Me to defeat the enemy.

For I am raising up a Church that will no longer be irrelevant. But all of the rhetoric of the enemy will be seen and known because all that he could plan and all that he could do, was cut down with one voice by My Church arising, declaring who they are in Me. For in Me, you see, there is nothing that you will not be able to do. In Me, you see, there is nothing that I will not do for you. For didn't I say that if you ask of Me, that I would give it to you? Did I not say that the Spirit would reside on the inside of you and that nothing would be impossible? Did I not tell you that if you agreed as touching anything on earth, that it would be done for you?

So faith will be the key. Walking in the Spirit will be the remedy. And you will begin to see that they have been lying in wait, waiting to see if the powers that the Church says they have could still possibly be. Oh, but yes, My Church is coming alive again. My Church is moving in new arenas that they have never moved in before. Oh, that is why I told you about the mountains. That is why I have been preparing. That is why I have been situating things. That's why you have been dedicated before Me. That is why you have received relevant teachings with revelatory knowledge. Because I saturated you with truth, so that when the moment came, when the enemy thought he had won against you, when the enemy thought he had destroyed the Church, when the enemy thought that there would be no outburst of power, when he really thought that he had proved you to be lame, I brought you by the Gate Beautiful and took you by the hand and said, “Rise up and walk.”

And walk you will. You will walk into the hearts of people. You will walk into the thoughts of people. You will be able to know what they are thinking and understand the plans that I have for them, and speak it out under an anointing that they will not be able to deny. For I am increasing My power on those who will dare to believe Me so that you can once again see the signs and the wonders and miracles. For it did not stop in the book of Acts. I have been waiting for you to act. Act as though you really are Mine. Act as though you really have power. Act as though you are confident in Me. Act as though you are the Church that I have been waiting for you to be.

Now is the time for the Church to come alive again. Now is the time for the Church to come into the place where they understand they are the ones with divine intervention. They are the ones that I have entrusted with My people. They are the ones that will have the mouth to speak the truth. They are the ones that I am counting on. My Church is all over the nations. My Church is coming into the spiritual realm and they are beginning to see things by revelatory eyes. They are beginning to come into agreement again with Me, and they are beginning to see the intervention and the interception and the ability. Then they will walk it out, and then they will reach out to them, and then the enemy will know that the sleeping giant has awakened.

This is a season that I am beginning. This is a season for you to take hold of the truth. There are those that have let the enemy seduce you into lying down beside the world's ways, into sharing my power with the world's power and producing a mixture instead of purity. That is why the Church has appeared to be powerless—because they have given over their power to the seduction of the world's system. They have been inundated with the world and they have allowed it to suck the very life out of them.

But there is a remnant. There are those who have not bowed their knee. There are those who are hearing My voice right now, who are coming out of that place, who are understanding that their hair—their strength—has begun to grow back. They are understanding that which I have placed on the inside of them. They are understanding that I already have had divine intervention to rescue them out of the hands of the enemy, and that I already have a plan. For you see, everything that the enemy has done, and everything he has gotten you to agree with that is not of Me, I will use it to turn it around, to rescue, and to have a testimony.

Testimony time is about to begin—the testimonies of the lost being found, the testimonies of those who were in sickness coming alive again. You will hear the testimonies of those whose disease bowed at the name of Jesus. Testimonies of those who had no way out, but found the way out, because you shined in the darkness and became the intervention that they needed. You are the ones that I have anointed; you are the ones that I have appointed; you are the ones that I have set aside; you are the ones I have poured out upon.

Now the oil will increase, and now the glory will increase, and now the revelation will increase. The old is old, but the new is new—new revelation, new ways of doing things, new thought patterns. You can only press forward if you let go. Letting go will bring you into the place of the heavenly realm. Letting go will let you experience that which you've only thought about but you've never longed for. The difference that I'm making in the Church right now is because they have come to a place of desperation. Finally they understand that without Me, they can do nothing. They cannot change the circumstances. They cannot get up on their own. They cannot stand what they are seeing any more, but because of what the enemy has brought and what he has plotted out, and the drama and the trauma that he has brought, he thought he was proving you powerless.

But what it was doing was causing you to step a little bit closer. What it was doing was causing you to sit at My feet. What it was doing was getting you to look into My Word for what the truth really is. And My Church that has been seeking for the truth is finding the truth and the truth is setting them free. For now they will have divine insights as never before. They will have the divine revelation needed for every situation and circumstance. They're going to have the divine appointments set by Me. They are not in charge. You are not in charge, but you will know who is. You will have a new way of being, a new way of walking, a new way of talking, a new way of shining.

The Church thought that if they could just look holy then others would want to be holy. But they thought that looking holy meant that they had to dress a certain way. They thought that looking holy meant they were supposed to have proper words to say, that they had to have everything plotted out in advance. They thought they had to be those who could be the best in front of the masses. But all along, the power is not in how you look, or how you dress, but it is already written, the power is in the Spirit.

My Church is seeking now the things of the Spirit again. My Church is having a divine intervention right now of the importance of the Holy Spirit. It is a divine interruption in their life. When the Spirit calls their name and writes an assignment to them, they will come and they will take their orders from headquarters, and they will go and they will do and they will reach and they will plan and they will find the very woman or the very man. The divine assignments are set up for those who dare to believe Me, and that they will do exploits in My name. Exploits! Not little things—huge things. Huge things! Big things come from big dreams. Small things come from small faith.

This will be a year where your testing and your trying will come to a place of pause because faith is arising. This is a year where faith can be grasped and held on to. This is the year where the Word is the Word, is the Word, is the Word, is the Word, is the Word, is the Word, and the Word brings life. It will be a settled matter to those who hear by the Spirit. If you can see it in My Word then you can do it with My words. If you can see it, you can trust Me in it. If you can read it, it's for you. If you can believe it, then everything that you can dream with Me will come into view and come to pass. You will have to actually trust Me in this. You will actually have to believe that it is true. But if you will, I will. If you will, I will. If you will, I will. That's My promise.

You see, in some things I have already intervened, and divinely pre-ordained. I already rescued you. I already sent My Son. What else has to be done? Simply believe. Only believe. Apply the truth and apply your faith and apply the Word to every situation, and put a cap over your mouth for anything that comes against the truth of My Word. You trust Me, you believe Me, you open your mouth, you doubt Me, and it falls to the ground, and you think I failed, and you get disappointed. But you see, the enemy will take every opportunity to steal the truth from you. Do not offer your words to him as an instrument to destroy yourself. But keep aligned with truth and My truth will keep setting you free. My truth will keep following you. My truth will keep doing that which it was set out to do. I'm watching over My Word. I'm always watching over My Word. I'm watching who will say it, I'm watching who will read it, I'm watching who will believe it, I'm watching who will grab hold of it and not let go. For the greatest treasures are hidden inside the pages of the love letter that I have written to you. So believe Me and grab hold of it and hold tight and do not let go. I will not let go of you and I will not let go of My promises concerning you. I will not let go of My covenant, and I will not let go of My power. And you will experience what you never thought that you could experience before.

There is knowledge, and there is a divine revelation of knowledge that is being released even for things that could make you really, really wealthy. Understand that the wealth of the wicked is laid up for the just, and if you will trust Me in this, then you will know that I have already intervened for you to not live in lack. I already divinely intervened for you to not live in poverty. But I have released the things that are necessary for you to grab hold of and walk in the prosperity that I planned for you. For you are My Church that is to meet the needs. You have forgotten. You have laid aside those things. But those dreams, those dreams that I gave you, those dreams that I gave you were inside of you before you were even born. The visions that you dream about, dream! Dare to dream again. And let them be sprinkled with the glory, and sprinkled with the anointing, and sprinkled with the acceptance that there is divine intervention on its way, to turn that which the enemy has used against you into good, to prove once again that I am God. There is nothing, nothing, not one thing that is impossible for Me.

There will be divine discipline necessary. That means this: if you will covenant with Me, and you will allow Me to make decisions for you, then I will help you to stay on track. You see, you are working so hard trying to be perfect and acceptable and to do it right. But you forgot the principle of My divine grace. You have forgotten that I will pour out everything you need. That divine influence upon your heart, is real. That is not just something for a sermon. That divine influence upon your heart is the revelation of My grace in your life that causes you to be able to do what I have already designed for you to do, to be that which I have called you to be. So why do you still doubt Me?

Divine discipline will come because you will want it. You will be disciplined by the things of the Spirit and no longer by the rules and the regulations that people have made religion out of. For religion kills, but oh, My grace will draw you to Me. My grace will prove to others that no matter where they are, and whatever state they are in, there is hope for them too. If you could earn it, then they would have to earn it too. Therefore, they think there is no way for them to come. But didn't you come to Me by grace? And didn't you come to Me because that divine influence upon your heart kept making your heart beat faster and faster until you recognized the truth that I died for you, to cover your sins?

The divine intervention for you brought a divine discipline for you to leave the past behind and to grab hold of the new life that I had already designed for you. The same will occur time and time again as you allow Me the privilege of pouring My grace out and proving to the world that they do not earn My love, that they do not earn My grace, but that it is a gift freely given because of My unfailing love towards them.

The revelation of that love will cause you to love like you've never loved before. Not only that, it will cause you to be loved like you've never been loved before. For when you can understand that, you will understand how much I unconditionally love you, and you'll be able to receive it. Your mind can't understand it because you don't think you're worth it. But I sent My Son to prove your worth. I watched Him die, to sow a seed, because I valued you as sons and daughters. So I let that seed die in the ground to reproduce those that would be able to walk like Him, to talk like Him, to intervene like He did for those who were lost and wounded and hurt and undone—for those who were possessed by devils and He set them free, for those who were hungry and He fed them.

You see, greater things, greater things will you do, greater things. Trust Me. You can, you know. I am the same yesterday, today and forever. I am the source behind every need that you have. I am the source behind everything that they need. I will intersect you. I will promote you. I will present you. And I will work through you. Divine intervention for the people I love. Who will you let Me lay on your heart? Who will you let Me put on the inside of you that which you cannot deny? What dream will you let Me bring alive again? Give Me permission and there will be an explosion of love—an explosion that exceeds anything you've felt or known before. One that will take you into the places that no one else wants to go, but you can't wait. Because you can't wait. Because you can't wait any longer.

All kinds of restraints will come off—the restraining orders that the enemy has put out against you, the restraining orders of finances, the restraining orders of inflexibility, the restraining orders of lack and of not having enough knowledge. All of those things are cancelled because I am divinely intervening on your behalf. There is a cancellation in the heavenly that is coming down from heaven and is cancelling his plans for your life. My intervention for your intervention. It is coming so that ... It is coming so that you will rise. It is coming so that you will do. It is coming so that you will honor Me in ways you never thought possible.

Oh, wait until you see how My Church ends up looking! Oh, you know that Church without spot or wrinkle? They're still coming. They're still coming. There is a process of My Church awakening to this. There is a process of this divine intervention; however, it is My decision. It has already been made. Now you have to accept it and walk in it. And those who will, will see the glory. And those who will, are going to have so much fun in the Spirit. The world has put out the memo that it's more fun in the world's system; but really they're missing out on how fun it is to live in the place of the Spirit. As you begin to saturate yourself in the things with the Holy Spirit, they're going to begin to understand you are the ones who have what they want and what they've been looking for all along. I have put inside of every person, a desire to know the higher things, the better things, the holy things, the divine things. And they're going to see it, and they're actually going to want it. As you display it, and share it, they will begin to embrace it.

Now trust Me that there will be multiplication on every side. Trust Me for the things that you want concerning this, Church. For many of you have said, "Well I want to do this, and I want to see this, but I don't understand why these things haven't come to pass." I am telling you that if you will put your faith on Me, you will begin to see that those things you've desired are because I've put it on the inside of you.

For I have called you still into this house to be a part of changing Davie and the surrounding areas and South Florida and Broward County. So keep your eyes on the vision and see the divine intervention and be a part of it, and be a part of the victory. You have to stop waiting on things to happen, and begin to make them happen with Me. Take a step, take a step of faith. Take another step of faith. Take another step and understand you're growing. You will grow as you go. You will be able to do, as you do. You will be able to receive as you give out. So decide 2013 is different. Make a decision with Me, a divine decision to align with your divine destiny and I will take you to your divine destinations.

It's the end times, Jesus is coming back soon. It's the end of the end. In the book of Amos it talks about those who will be judged, it will be times of terror and horror and hopelessness to all of the earth and so woe to you who are excited for this time. What I want and desire is not for you to be anxious, for this is a mighty flood of justice. What I desire to see at this time is a mighty flood of justice and an endless river of righteousness. That's what we will see and must bring.

The earth will shake and bring forth if we see it today, fires, super-storms, earthquakes, but this is not a time to escape, it is a time to be a light of justice and righteousness. That's why we're here on the earth, and we will shine and burn bright in the darkness. It wasn't built for a time of peace, it was built for the darkness and storm.

We are calling in the end of the times. We are calling in the return of our Lord. There was John the Baptist, like him; we are preparing the way again for the return of the Lord. We will be calling forth those things that are not as though they are. We are showing them that there is truth, light, true love. As John the Baptist was out, the crowds gathered, saying, what do we do?

John the Baptist didn't say, "Go to theology school, go build the best church buildings or to look a certain way." It was very simple, "If you have two shirts, give one away." That is how you prepare the way of the Lord.

As Pastor Dawn was saying, in these times, the Spirit will come upon us, and you will do greater things than Jesus did. If we look at all of the miracles recorded, we will do greater—and we don't even know all of them. If all of the things were written, there wouldn't be enough paper to record all of these great things. He healed the sick, He did all of these awesome things. Jesus healed the sick, the lepers, and eventually they got sick and/or died. Jesus fed thousands of people, and in a couple hours, they got hungry. Jesus raised the dead, but you know what, they died. It's true, but what never went away was the justice and the love and the righteousness that was put upon them at that time. Miracles are the Trojan horse by which God inserts His love into the earth.

Our light will burn, and though we are surrounded by terrorism, and horrors, by the storms which roar about us, we will stand firm, and tall. Not waiting and hiding, but we will be showing the mercy of the Lord God. We will be showing the grace and truth and shining brighter than ever before. Now is the time we are needed, we are needed now because we are the divine intervention. That would come at this time because now is the time—as the earth arises, as the Bride of Christ rises, as beautiful as she is.

You will see Me orchestrate many things as we move into this next year, for I am bringing about godly government, Kingdom rule on the earth. Do not look to the news to validate. Instead speak to the earth, speak to governments and reform and form what God wants to do on the earth. Release God's Word in people's lives and in every institution known to man—family, marriage, schools, governments, fields and places of influence. Yes, My people speak My will and My words go forward and accomplish. My prophets, praisers, and prayer intercessors go forward and speak the purposes of God. Do not hold back because you're waiting for prophets. Be like Mary, who spoke up and said, "Do whatever He says." See the need and line things up. You were asking what a Father does, what a "Mother of Israel" does. Be a Father, be a Mom to all people, places and situations that need a touch, a re-ordering, a work of God! Release miracles by speaking, praising and preparing the way! You have no limits of influence. Your words and praises and prophecy go everywhere the sun goes. There is no voice or language your voice is not heard. You will see Me move in your circumstances. I have the last word!

You have said that the world is going crazy and you wonder what people are thinking. But now you must listen to Me and My words. In the midst of the tumult you will find peace, you will find courage and conviction to act, and you will find My love burning stronger in you and giving you clarity.

My love burns the fog of confusion away, just like the sun at the start of the day.

I have set people to pray. As in the days of Noah—and I stepped in—so now My Church steps in to comfort, heal and pray, and set free. And My grace is really grace—yes, amazing grace comes flowing from the brokenness of My heart for each heartbreak and it heals. It heals bodies, families, broken spirits, broken trust, and restores damaged destinies. You might not have the equipment to see it done now, but I have NO LIMIT on my equipment. There are spiritual Big Movers that lift and pick up and blast away and super-clean.

My heart is right here for you, for the taking. As you spend time with Me, you get my heart. You get how much I love you. You get how much I take care of timing, and how deliberate I am about details. There are no inconsequential details to Me. I watch over the bubbles in the wake that are here for a moment and gone, just like I know the hairs on your head. When I said that nothing is too hard for Me, the magnitude of that is what I have for you to get today. Now take your rest in Me. If you are given to prayer, given to relationship with Me, given to maintaining and increasing oneness with Me, then I will alert you by My Spirit and give you a focus. I will cause even your thoughts to be as prayers heard aloud in heaven. You do not have to strive—you just choose to be in My Presence, loving Me, losing Me, receiving and releasing more of Me.

You have prayed and America has prayed. You are becoming a praying people again. If My people called by My name humble themselves and pray, I will hear and I will heal. Look around and see the fields. The land is ready for healing, being prepared for healing. Don't stop praying—intensify!

I will ALWAYS rescue you! I will ALWAYS help you. I will ALWAYS save your life. No matter what it is, you can rely on Me. When I manifest My salvation, don't even think about the "what if" because that is fruitless, fearful thinking. You can be grateful and thankful and recognize that I intervened without going into the extreme end of what might have been. This has nothing to do with not being shaken when bad things happen around you. You already have that. This is about you not being shaken when bad things don't happen. Guard your thoughts.

Now take this for your country and your family and your Church and your Pastor. I WILL NEVER LEAVE YOU NOR FORSAKE YOU! Now take this for your country. America, I will never leave you nor forsake you. Israel, I will never leave you nor forsake you. For the sake of those in covenant with Me, I will see you through. I said to Abraham, if I find 10 righteous, and that was My mercy under his covenant. You are under grace. Speak grace to your nation. Speak My love, speak truth, speak Jesus—in Him grace and truth have met. Yes, there will be rejection because we are in the last days and deception has already begun. But the vast majority are looking for hope and help. And even those in derision may have an encounter with the Light that shines on persecutors like Paul, because some are truth-seekers waiting for the sun that burns up their fog, waiting for the unveiling of their minds, and the unsealing of their hearts. Three days it took for Paul, and he was breathing fire and murderous hatred.

God has been speaking to me about 2013 and what to expect. He said that 2013 will be the year of the restoration of the Body of Christ. This is the restoration of not only finances, but health, relationships, and joy. Revelation 21:5 came to mind, "Behold, I make ALL things NEW! This will be the year of new vision, new revelation, new songs, new joy, new peace, new insight, new jobs, new mind, new thinking, new dreams, new life, and new glory.

This will be the year where He will organize His Bride. We don't have to, He will. You will begin to see some people leave the ministry, and some people move into the full-time ministry, not having to worry about finances. Churches will grow rapidly, youth will begin to run to the altars, fathers will return to their sons, and sons will turn back to their fathers. Churches will not be in any financial bind or lack because He is the Administrator and Manager.

2013 is the year of restoration and renewal!

re: prefix, indicating return to a previous condition, restoration, etc.: rebuild; renew; retrace; reunite
